Andrew Carter Gilligan Again
Faces Judge Atkinson.

Argument on Motion For a New Trial For the Prisoner Will Probably Begin To-Day—Hold, Bad Robbers—Other Notes of Interest.

Suffolk, Va., Aug. 6.—Because only one of the defense attorneys was present the case of Andrew Carter Gilligan, called at Isle of Wight Courthouse to-day, was continued till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The prisoner made the motion for continuance through Attorney Samuel H. Edwards. It is expected that Col. J. C.
Baker, of Newport News, another of the defense attorneys, will have arrived by to-morrow.

Gilligan is seeking a new trial. The details of the case, which was one of the most sensational that ever happened, are yet fresh in the minds of newspaper readers.

FINANCIAL AID.
The trial attracted very widespread interest, and a number of young women of sentiment and others offered funds to assist Gilligan in fighting through the higher courts in necessary. A sister and niece of the prisoner, both of whom resided in Richmond some time ago to receive contributions.

It is doubtful if as much money as is needed has yet been raised. If Judge Atkinson refuses a new trial the case will be taken before Circuit Judge Trent, and unless his ruling be favorable will then be appealed to the court of last resort.

THE PRISONER.
Gilligan is seemingly in good health. He smiled as he shook hands with friends about the court green.

A BOLD DESPERADO.
Jesse Russell is a name that strikes dismay to the hearts of unprotected citizens who live in the neighborhood of Wha-leyville—a name that suggests felonies, fire and plunder.

Two new crimes have been laid at Jesse Russell's door. The nearby citizens are anxious to action, and to-night Wha-leyville people are eager to get telephone connection with law officers and people with bloodhounds. They are anxious to capture a person who has been charged with the permanent undoing and place him and his gang where they can no longer terrorize helpless citizens and live by ill-gotten gains.

THE TWO LATEST.
Last night the home of Tom Smith, who lives in the county, was burglarized, and about 11 o'clock to-day, with the sum almost in mid heaven, the domicile of Garland White suffered a like fate.

Jesse Russell is charged with both crimes. He is a white man who is said to have come from North Carolina and whose shrewdness in the commission of crime is only equaled by his cleverness in evading arrest.

The articles stolen in these last raids include a gun, watch, jewelry, cash and clothing. It is said a trunk was taken away bodily and filed.

County officers have been on the outlook for the marauders, and they are eager to have their presence been seen.
Bloodhounds will likely be the next result.

SHOT BUT MISSED.
John James, charged with shooting Barney Whittaker, as told in Sunday's Virginian-Pilot, was not tried to-day, as all the witnesses have not been secured.
James acknowledges having fired a gun, but says the bullet did not strike Whittaker, whose wounds were received some other way.

PLEASURE PIER MANAGER.
Mr. H. E. Elam, the enterprising manager of the City Hall Theatre, has accepted a position as manager of the new Pleasure Pier at Ocean View during the rest of the summer. He left to-day.

ABOUT GUS COBBE.
To-day's Baltimore Sun prints the following notice of Gus Cobbe, manufacturer under a Newport News date line:

"Mr. A. H. Cobb, one of the owners of the knitting mill recently established here, is in the city. He is enthusiastic over the prospects of success and says that unless his plans miscarry he expects to have a plant that will give employment to 500 girls before twelve months elapse."

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.
Mr. Hervey Archer, one of January & Brook's salesmen, is spending vacation with his mother, Mrs. L. M. Roberts, at Myrtle Beach, N. C.

Miss Goodman, of Georgia, sang pretty songs at the Main Street Methodist Church Sunday.

Herbert Holland, of Norfolk, is passing some weeks at his former home in Sul-folk. Paul Jones, also of Norfolk, is with him.

Washington.—The count of the population of Buffalo, just completed at the census office, is 32,219. The population in 1890 was 25,064. The increase is 27.7 per cent.

NEWPORT NEWS.

STEEL PLANT ASSURED—NEGRO
KILLED—ELKS BASEBALL GAME

Newport News, Va., Aug. 6.—Mr. C.
P. Huntington's hobby—the establishment of a steel plant in this city for the manufacture of the material used in the construction of ships at the shipyard—bids fair to soon assume definite proportions. Mr. Huntington, who is the city on one of his periodical trips of inspection, said yesterday that he had finally decided to build the plant, and while it would not be the largest establishment of the kind in the country, it would cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 and would give employment to a large force of men. He refused to say when work on the new plant would be started, but positively asserted that the plant had been decided upon and that it would soon assume definite shape. He said that further investigation of the armor-plate situation had convinced him that it was impracticable for builders of warships to manufacture their own armor-plate, and that if a factory for this product is established here it would not be in connection with his enterprises. The steel plant is to be located on the lots directly in front of the general offices of the ship-building plant. These lots have been excavated, the dirt being used to fill in the approaches to the Lafayette bridge. The plant will be built on both sides of the ship-yard switch, so that material may be readily handled on incoming and outgoing trains.

ELKS TO PLAY ELKS.
A special from Richmond says: "The challenge of the Newport News Elks to the Richmond Elks for a game of ball has been enthusiastically accepted by the B. P. O. E. of Richmond, and Jake Wells is organizing a team from the Elks here to send to Newport News. The date has not been fixed, but when they come Newport News will have a jolly crowd on her hands."

The Richmond Elks feel particularly kindly to the Newport News Elks because of the earnest and staunch support they gave them in their fight at Atlantic City for the national convention. The contest of the Newport News Elks was in strong contrast to the action of members of the order from other Virginia cities, and in recognition of their cordial support then, the Richmond Elks propose to make a trip to Newport News a compelli-mentary one. No doubt the special train will be chartered and decorated and that a big crowd will come with the band playing and colors flying.

A NEGRO KILLED.
A negro man known as "Coffee," and whose real name cannot be learned, was killed here last night by a bullet from R. B. Payne. He and three other negroes were playing craps when surprised by a sergeant and two officers, one of whom was Payne.

On the way to the station-house "Coffee" made a break for liberty.
An hour later he was found, and when Payne started in pursuit and when the fugitive paid no heed to his orders to halt, fired three shots after him, apparently without effect. Payne then rejoined the main party and went to the station-house with them.

An hour later the sergeant stumbled over "Coffee's" body in a dark corner, and had it removed to the station. An inquest held yesterday resulted in a verdict in accordance with these facts.
Policeman Payne will be given a preliminary hearing to-morrow. He is out on bail.

PETERSBURG.
BIDS TOO HIGH—TO ADDRESS
VETERANS.
(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Petersburg, Va., Aug. 6.—In view of the bids all being too high the Atlantic Coast Line will have the work of connecting its road, or rather of making a three-mile cut-off at Emporia, Greensville county, done by its own force.
There were eleven bids for the work.

SOME TIME LAST NIGHT the grocery store of Mr. P. W. Smith, on High street, was entered by thieves and robbed of a quantity of goods.

Mr. P. W. Smith and children left to-day for Chicago, whither Mrs. Dewar goes for the benefit of her health.
Both Mrs. Dewar and her children, after spending some time in Chicago, will go to California.

A. C. GILLIGAN, who was convicted in the County Court of Isle of Wight of the murder of C. B. Turner and his punishment fixed at eighteen years in the penitentiary, was taken to the county court house of Isle of Wight to-day that a motion for a new trial might be made. It is reported that misunderstanding has arisen between Judge D. P. Hinton, chief counsel for Gilligan, and his client, and therefore, he did not accompany the prisoner to Isle of Wight.

SPEECH TO VETERANS.
Congressman John Lamb, of the Richmond District, has accepted an invitation from General Stith Bolling, of this city, to address the veterans of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia, to address the Confederate veterans of Surry county, at Dendron to-morrow. Congressman Lamb is assigned as assistant general on General Bolling's staff.

HAMPTON.
THE CONGRESSIONAL BEE—A VETERAN'S DEATH.

Hampton, Va., Aug. 6.—Hon. E. E.
Montague, the most promising aspirant for the nomination of candidate for Congress from the Second district of Virginia, died here to-day. Mr. Montague has given his chance for a nomination a thorough canvass, and from a general survey he feels confident that he stands pretty high. There is little doubt that he will carry York and Eliza-betta City counties, and with these as a lead his success is very bright.

VETERAN DROPS DEAD.
One of the veterans at the Soldier's Home dropped dead Saturday evening from heart failure. He had been showing the signs of the disease, and his sister and niece, and it is supposed the exertion was too severe. His body was sent to Philadelphia for interment.

BENJAMIN'S MENTAL STATUS.
Mrs. Dreyer and Foster have forwarded to Governor Tyler the report of their investigation into the question of the sanity of Frank Benjamin, sentenced to be hanged next Friday for attempted criminal assault on Miss Emily Kaul of Norfolk. The report went in a sealed envelope, and the doctors would give no intling of its nature.

Stones Without Foundation.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 6.—No reliance is attached to sensational reports of bloodshed at Bayboro and Malden in alleged post election riots, and stories of other killings in North Carolina are likewise without foundation. At Malden trouble was expected, but the turmoil soon blew over and the sheriff did not even go to the scene. At Bayboro, another alleged battleground, there was considerable disturbance, but no bloodshed has resulted.

DIED AWAY FROM HOME.

Miss Edmonia Strange Passed Away After Several Weeks Illness

Professor Smith, of Elon College, Addresses Missionary Society Presbyterian Entertainment To-Night Neway Notes of Interest in Small Space.

The Missionary Society of Main Street Christian Church Sunday evening was addressed by Prof. S. M.
Smith, formerly of this place, but now of Elon College. The announcement of Prof. Smith's presence was a sufficient inducement for a large crowd.
The church was packed to its utmost capacity. The other participants on the program rendered their respective parts in a most satisfactory manner.

The committee to arrange the program for the next meeting the first Sunday in September is composed of Misses Noma Eley, Laura Jones, Annie Winborne and Mr. J. M. Saunders.

Miss Edmonia Strange, of New York city, who arrived here about seven months ago on a visit to her cousin, Mrs. Dr. George W. Wallace, on Chestnut street, died yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock after several months' illness. She was 40 years old and leaves a sister, Miss Josephine Strange, of New York.

Miss Edmonia is expected to arrive this morning. The deceased was born in Goochland county, Va., where she is well known, but had resided in New York the past ten years. There are a large circle of friends, even though of short acquaintance, who mourn the deceased's death. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

By hard and timely hitting, the Portsmouth Baseball Club defeated the locals at League Park on their side yesterday afternoon. It looked for a while as if the locals would have an easy thing with the visitors, but a sudden streak of bad luck struck the team and the balloon went up. The upping of Mr. Kaufman was so demoralizing to the home club that in the sixth inning Captain Spratt refused to let him continue, and after a long struggle "Brownie" Martin was substituted. This thing of "not being able" to secure a conscientious umpire is causing the patrons of the game to grow weary, and few were heard to say yesterday that these farces should be discontinued and the services of a good umpire secured.

The game was fairly interesting, and there was some hard hitting and pretty fielding by both teams. Portsmouth played defense whenever they needed a hit, and if they needed more than one they got it.

Landrum, the visiting pitcher, was hit hard at times, but managed to secure a little the best of the argument at the finish. Jim Smith and Pulsifer, as usual, fielded well and made the customary circus catches. To-day's game will be played in Portsmouth, and it is hoped that the services of some one who knows the game can be secured to umpire. Yesterday's game
